

LUGANONAUTICA 25th-28th March 2010

LuganoNautica, the first Ticinese boat show, re-open the admissions for the next edition that will be take place from the 25th to 28th March 2010.

Isicom SA, the Italian Swiss experienced exhibition and event organizer, is proud to purpose for the third time this show because its success achieved since the first edition. LuganoNautica is a perfect opportunity to display new & traditional products from yachts to any kind of solutions for comfort, hi-tech, safety and environment saving on-board and in-port, and much more.

LuganoNautica, up to 12.000 sqm big, is luckily hosted in the most famous and sunny part of the Ceresio Lake. Until now, exhibitors came from both the sea and the lake sides of the yachting industries, representing some of the most famous national and international brands of small and medium yachts.

The prestige of the international exhibitors and of the brands represented guarantees the event success, which is characterized from some of the most important features that elects a nice yachting event. In fact, in the Ticinese boat show you can find both "indoor" and "floating" yachts (available for tests), and Lugano is strategically close to famous lakes, industrial areas and regions where lives a lot of High Net Worth Individual, obviously good potential clients. Moreover, the hosting city of Lugano is international, beautiful, cozy, very well connected with transports; the town centre is so close to the show and to the port and it's very easy to be involved from the LuganoNautica.
